

Redemption Place Faith Based Sober Living Application

This packet will explain how Redemption Place is structured to help facilitate a safe environment for all house members. Please read completely and carefully. Redemption Place can be long term or transitional depending on your needs. You are the one to decide if and when you are ready to move out into the community.

Rents are $495 per month for a shared room and $595 per month for a private room. There is a $200 non-refundable maintenance fee required to move in. Beds are on a first come, first serve basis. If you need to reserve a bed, the rent and deposit must be paid ahead of time and we will hold a bed for you. If you decide that you do not want to come to Redemption Place and go somewhere else, your monies will not be refunded because we held a bed for you.

Rent includes: Gym Membership, Utilities, Wireless Internet, Paper Towels, and Toilet Paper. Availability of beds changes from time to time so please keep in touch with us.

Redemption Place is faith based with a weekly church service required. Redemption Place is 12 step oriented with 12 step meetings required. Weekly house meetings are essential and also required.

For the safety of all house members, immediate expulsion is required of anyone who is found, by the majority of the house, to be using drugs or alcohol. Other behaviors such as fighting, stealing, use or possession of weapons, compulsive gambling, selling of drugs, disruptive behavior, non-participation in required drug/alcohol testing, nonpayment of rent, collusion with other house members or not complying with other sections of this contract will also lead to expulsion from Redemption Place.

PHASE ONE

Everyone coming into Redemption Place will begin with Phase One regardless of sobriety. Phase One members are required to:

- Attend 30 meetings in 30 days.
- Carry a meeting slip and have it signed by appropriate chairperson.
- Sign in and out on the Phase One whiteboard located by the entry door.
- Honor the 10:00 p.m. curfew.
- Sleep at the house every night.
- Reside in a shared room.
- Find and utilize a 12 step sponsor.

After 30 consecutive days without incidence, members then enjoy the benefits of Phase Two.

INITIAL_____

Living in Redemption Place is by membership only. Redemption Place does not fall under the Landlord/tenant act. This means that a resident can be voted out of the house for violation of the house rules, including but not limited to: not doing required chores, non-payment of rent, leaving windows and doors unlocked etc. The time given to move out will be determined by the current members of the house or the owners. Violations such as using or the selling of drugs or alcohol, disruptive behavior, or possessing a weapon will result in the resident member being given 30 minutes to gather their belongings and vacate the house and premises.

I have read the items in this agreement and understand that if I am accepted into Redemption Place, I agree to the terms listed and I waive any landlord/tenant rights that I may be entitled to. I also understand that I fully and freely subject myself to the rules of Redemption Place. I also agree to make an effort to live a faith-based lifestyle while residing at Redemption Place.

I agree to release and hold harmless Redemption Place or any of its agents or employees from liability for any injury or damage to any personal property or person happening on or about the premises being occupied, or for any injury or damage to the premises or to any personal property of mine or of any person contained herein. Also, I understand that Redemption Place is not responsible for any personal property not picked up within 3 days of expelled house member vacating their room.
